COMMUNITY CLUB

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

The Club will adopt and adhere to the FA Codes of Conduct for Managers, Coaches, Players, Team Officials, Parents and Spectators. These Codes are issued to the respective people as required. The codes of conduct for parents, players and coaches can be found on our website: <https://westbridgfordfc.com/FA/>

If the player's behaviour continues to be in breach of The Club standards, an interview with the player and the parents / guardian will take place with the Executive Committee, where an agreed sanction will be implemented, which may include exclusion from The Club.

If a Player is sent off for violent conduct or swearing, in addition to any penalty set by the affiliated league and/or FA, the Executive Committee will review the case and may impose an additional sanction.

OFFICIALS FAILING TO MEET THE AGREED EXPECTATIONS

In the case of a Club Official breaching the Code of Conduct an interview will take place with the Executive Committee, who has the authority to revoke membership of the Club.

PARENTS / GUARDIANS / SPECTATORS FAILING TO MEET THE AGREED EXPECTATIONS

In the case of a parent, spectator or carer breaching the Code of Conduct, a meeting will take place with the Executive Committee, who has the authority to take the appropriate action.
